

Dmitry Suhov

Contemporary Artist and Sculptor Merging Siberian Roots with a Global Vision

Biography

Dmitry Suhov is a contemporary artist and sculptor renowned for his ability to merge abstract expressionism with deep philosophical reflections on space and form. Born and raised in Tara, a picturesque Siberian town on the banks of the Irtysh River, Suhov's artistic vision was shaped by the raw and majestic landscapes of his homeland. These influences are evident in his work, which explores themes of movement, texture, and emotional depth.

Suhov draws inspiration from some of the greatest pioneers of modern art, including Kazimir Malevich, Jackson Pollock, Mikhail Vrubel, Joan Mitchell, Wassily Kandinsky, and Cy Twombly. His artistic approach reflects a synthesis of these influences, incorporating dynamic compositions, bold color palettes, and intricate textures that evoke a sense of energy and motion.

He received his formal training at the Russian Academy of Arts and the Moscow State Art Institute named after V.I. Surikov, where he honed his techniques and developed a unique visual language that bridges traditional and contemporary artistic expressions.

Artistic Career and Exhibitions

Suhov is an active participant in major international exhibitions and art fairs, presenting his works in galleries and museums across the globe. His pieces have been featured in prestigious private and corporate collections in Russia, the UAE, the Netherlands, Turkey, Canada, the USA, the UK, China, and beyond.

His artistic practice spans a diverse range of mediums, from large-scale paintings to sculptural installations. His signature technique involves multi-layered, textured surfaces that create a complex interplay of light, shadow, and movement. His ability to translate deep emotional experiences into abstract forms has made him a standout figure in contemporary art.

Suhov is a member of the Creative Union of Artists of Russia and the International Federation of Artists, further solidifying his role in the international art community.

Selected Exhibitions and Projects

- 2023 — Venice Architecture Biennale, Palazzo Albrizzi - Capello, Venice, Italy
- 2023 — ART UNITES THE WORLD, Found Frison Horta, Brussels, Belgium
- 2023 — "Hearing Color", VDNH, Moscow
- 2023 — Solo exhibition "Antithesis", SNEG Gallery, Moscow
- 2024 — COSMOSCOW, Moscow
- 2024 — Venice Biennale "ART UNITES THE WORLD. EARTH / SPACE", Palazzo Pisani Revedin, Venice, Italy
- 2024 — Solo exhibition "Lines. Siberia. Dmitry Suhov", GUM-RED Line, Moscow
- 2025 — Solo exhibition "Images of the Unconscious", Oblong Contemporary Gallery, Dubai

Philosophy and Artistic Vision

Suhov's work is deeply rooted in his exploration of the unconscious mind, memory, and the sensory experience of space. His paintings and sculptures often serve as meditative landscapes, encouraging viewers to engage with their inner emotions and personal interpretations.

His practice is not just about aesthetics but about creating an immersive experience—a dialogue between the artwork and the observer. Whether through the bold strokes of his paintings or the intricate details of his sculptural works, Suhov strives to push the boundaries of perception, allowing his audience to connect with his art on a visceral level.

Social and Cultural Contributions

Beyond his artistic endeavors, Dmitry Suhov actively participates in charitable and cultural projects, supporting initiatives that promote art education and cross-cultural dialogue. His involvement in international collaborations has helped strengthen artistic exchanges between Russia, Europe, and the Middle East, particularly in the UAE, where his work has gained significant recognition.

Through his exhibitions and philanthropic efforts, Suhov continues to advocate for the transformative power of art, believing that creativity has the ability to transcend borders and connect people across cultures.