

Serero Pop Art

Serero's heart leads her to get lost under the domes of Italian churches where the Renaissance left indelible traces. Learn the color, the movement, the emotion that only Italian painting can give. She likes to quote Raoul Dufy when he says that painting is making an image appear which is not that of the natural aspect of things, but which has the power of reality.

Serero constantly improves the art of mixing techniques and materials: inks, resins, natural pigments, acrylics. Above all, the artist inserts in her paintings small objects such as keys, playing cards, semi-precious stones, more or less evident but always symbolic: objects that attract and inspire her. Serero exhibits her works all over the world: New York, Paris, Tokyo, Lisbon, Rome, Barcelona, Venice, Bruges, Milan, Seoul, Beijing and Miami, are just some of the cities, in which Serero has made her Art known. Of great interest is her latest cycle related to Pop Art, in which her famous crowned heads come to life.

The great myths of cinema, Marilyn Monroe, Audrey Hepburn, Brigitte Bardot, fashion Coco Chanel, music Michael Jackson, the Beatles, Jim Morrison, Freddie Mercury, and art Vincent Van Gogh, Pablo Picasso, Salvador Dalí, Jean-Michel Basquiat and Frida Kahlo wear precious crowns in her works, thus becoming kings and queens for eternity.

Her latest pictorial cycle called "Super Idols" is dedicated to characters from the cultural, political, social, artistic or cartoon world, in the guise of Superman.
